Hospital Board is Now Officially Formed

The Hospital Board which will be in charge of the new hospital in St. Albert is now formed. All members representing St. Albert & District are appointed and the complete board plans to have their initial meeting in about three weeks. Swimming Pool Site and Sports Complex

If Council can reach an agreement in regards to land exchange with the Protestant School Board, it can be expected that the building of the Swimming Pool will start in December of this year. The site is located alongside the Nameo Road up to Churchill Avenue and consists of approximately ten acres. The land is owned by the Protestant School Board who have agreed in principle to exchange this site with Town-owned land in another part of the Town. Council decided last night during a special meeting that they will go ahead with the building of the swimming pool as soon as the land exchange between the Town and the Protestant School District is definitely settled with a clear title for the Town. There will be a meeting between officials of the Town and the Protestant School District tonight in regard to this matter.

Anglican Church

On Sunday we begin the Advent season in preparation for Christmas. Advent marks the beginning of a new Church Year. Those who worship faithfully, week by week, benefit from the guidance the Church Year gives us. It leads us systematically through the life of Christ to his death and resurrection, and then on to the founding of the infant Church at Pentecost. At the opening of this new Church Year, we begin with a preparation for the celebration of Christ's coming at Christmas. This year we shall consider the four great unsolved questions posed by the mystery of human life. Upon these the coming of Christ sheds light.

Notice of Baptismal Service - The next service of Holy Baptism will be on Sunday, December 26th at 11 a.m. Parents with infants for baptism are asked to contact the minister.

LOVE IS THE TEACHER

by Florence Lelebre

Mrs. McHugh explained that she must attend a short conference with Mr. Sieben and asked a Volunteer to read the story of the Three Bears. A question and answer period followed with good participation. Then Fox and Betty books were distributed by Mrs. McHugh and the class were told to find the page 30, which they would find printed at the bottom of the page. They were reminded that the story began at the top of the page. A thorough study of the story was made using the four pictures shown with the explanation immediately under it. Mrs. Unger sensed by wonder at the concentration and the drive which permitted no time to be wasted, and spoke of plans to purchase two Language Masters for use in both classrooms. The pre-school child, by hearing words sounded through earphones and the use of cards could hear themselves repeat the word which would be recorded, replay it and compare it to the sound issued by the Language Master, enabling them to correct their mistakes in speech. The grade one student could study phonetics, word blends, sentence structure, also hear it spoken by the machine, compare and correct their errors.

The cracker break was announced, and all were finished when the bell rang signaling time to go back to work. Papers and pencils were given each child who should print their names on it before actual work begins. Some do this without being told, others wait for the command, while a few need help provided by the volunteers, Mrs. Siemens and Mrs. Nealing.

Mrs. McHugh, facing the board, tells them to watch her hand moving as she makes a figure one in the air, which she follows up by writing it on the blackboard. They are told to make it by drawing a straight downward stroke between the two lines on their page. This continued until the figure 9, which brought us to the Physical Training period, tak-

Mrs. Florence Lelebre, our Cherchez-la-Lemme Editor, visited four weeks in 1950, the Aphasic Pre-School in Edmonton. The work done by the staff of this special school has impressed her so much that she wrote a series of articles in regards to this wonderful work. This week she finishes her heart-winning story. This picture shows Mrs. Lelebre in the background attending Grade 1 during the lessons.

en over by Mrs. Ladlaw. Children proceed to this room by orderly line ups. They throw balls back and forth, run like airplanes, played games in circles, each child being given a turn. They were all enthusiastic, showing no indication that they had the slightest co-ordination problem, rapt in the joy of participating with vigor in all phases which develop gross motor skills. Before lunch was served a simple grace was recited: "Father we thank Thee for this food. Amen." Neatness is encouraged. Some are poor eaters, but try to eat everything Mother has packed for them.

A quiet period followed spend mostly in looking at picture books and reading. A bell brings them back to attention. Standing with arms crossed they greeted us with "Good afternoon." Roll call was taken. Mrs. McHugh told her students that soon it would be Hallowe'en. She explained that they would make four drawings on a sheet of paper which they folded twice to produce four sections. By the use of drawing circles. They followed from the blackboard the instructions enabling them to draw an owl, a cat, a witch and a pumpkin, using the method of association.

Simple Arithmetic problems were given as well, made easy by the use of pegs and a board. The pegs removed from the board is used to subtract amounts, whereas their return in varying amounts would be used for adding exercises. The blackboard is used for illustration. The colors of the pegs are used to good advantage, and the use of the right and left directions helped each child to co-ordinate and judge for themselves. Each are checked and assisted. The first to finish are given different assignments usually picture puzzles. They are asked to say "I am finished, Mrs. McHugh." on completing each assignment. Mrs. McHugh stated that phonetics would be introduced as the pupils progressed and better attention was obtained. As various tasks are assigned, possessiveness is often shown. Explanations are given when needed. Patience is practiced as failure is shown and accepted as an attempt. Children showed genuine affection for their teachers and the Volunteers who come every day.

As the afternoon went on, the children were given different "game" exercises. They often brought us their work as it was finished for praise and approval. They worked at their own pace, and we couldn't help but marvel at their ambition and ability. Mrs. McHugh explained that some pupils can only go so far. This is why they need practice every day so that they advance slowly, and do not regress. Those who are finished are permitted to select a book and repeat words outloud with a volunteer. Another bell rings, bringing children back to their places after replacing each game and picture book.

To test perception and speech, Mrs. McHugh started a guessing game which resembled "I Spy". They really enjoyed themselves as they hurriedly answered each question. After everything in the room was "spied", it was almost time to say goodbye again. I dreaded farewells, as this was my last day, but I had seen their every needs met so adequately. I could only thank God that they had found themselves in these two rooms where they were accepted as they were and for what they were, as children with the desire, the right and the longing to learn. It was a Thursday well spent, one I've shared with you.

We left the classroom and went to the hall for coats and lunch boxes. The twenty-one pupils greeted and welcomed each other in their own way, and I recalled the scene this morning as I had waited for my bus, as St. Albert students clamoured at their school doors. I wondered where would these children be were it not for Mrs. Unger? Where would they fit in our schools, in our society? What would these parents do without some one to turn to?

I saw Kevin kiss Mrs. McHugh goodbye between the bars of the stair-rails, as he slowly climbed up. He is happy in this small school. Do you know of any young child who would not chose to be here if he or she had sustained minimal brain damage through birth, illness or accident? Wouldn't it be a pity if there were no rooms? These rooms are over crowded now!

I asked Mrs. Unger if more children were being registered. She answered that applications received were increasing at an alarming rate, and that a third class room was being planned for January which would accomodate only a few. Plans to be able to accept all children in this category by September 1966 are hoped to be completed on time. Mrs. Unger said "There is so much to do, one hardly knows what to do first." "Everything is so urgent, and must be done with extreme care. As our needs become known and we are given the necessary co-operation, we hope to help each child needing the care which we are prepared to give." I left still wondering and marvelling at the perseverance of these few women, and their daily gifts of faith and love.

The Meaning of Life

We read in the first issue of the Beacon, a K.C. Monthly publication in St. Albert, the following story which we think is interesting to all of us:

"When we ask men and women what they hope for from life, the answer can be summed up in one word 'Happiness.' The differences are in the paths leading to that goal. For some, these paths may be gold and power, profession or marriage, importance of good health...; yet none of these guarantee happiness. We all know persons who have these, yet are far from having happiness. There are those who look for inward happiness through being loved. We also see around us where an egoistic man or woman is loved deeply by his, or her, marriage partner, and yet remains without real happiness. But those who seek happiness in their own inner being, draw a little nearer to the secret. They are those who turn their eyes towards peace, inner security, fulfillment or freedom. But all these concepts are two faced...Take the case of the man who aims at peace. He may seek peace, for the sake of not being troubled...he wants rest. A man like this may find himself in a little pool of stagnant water, by the side of the river of life.

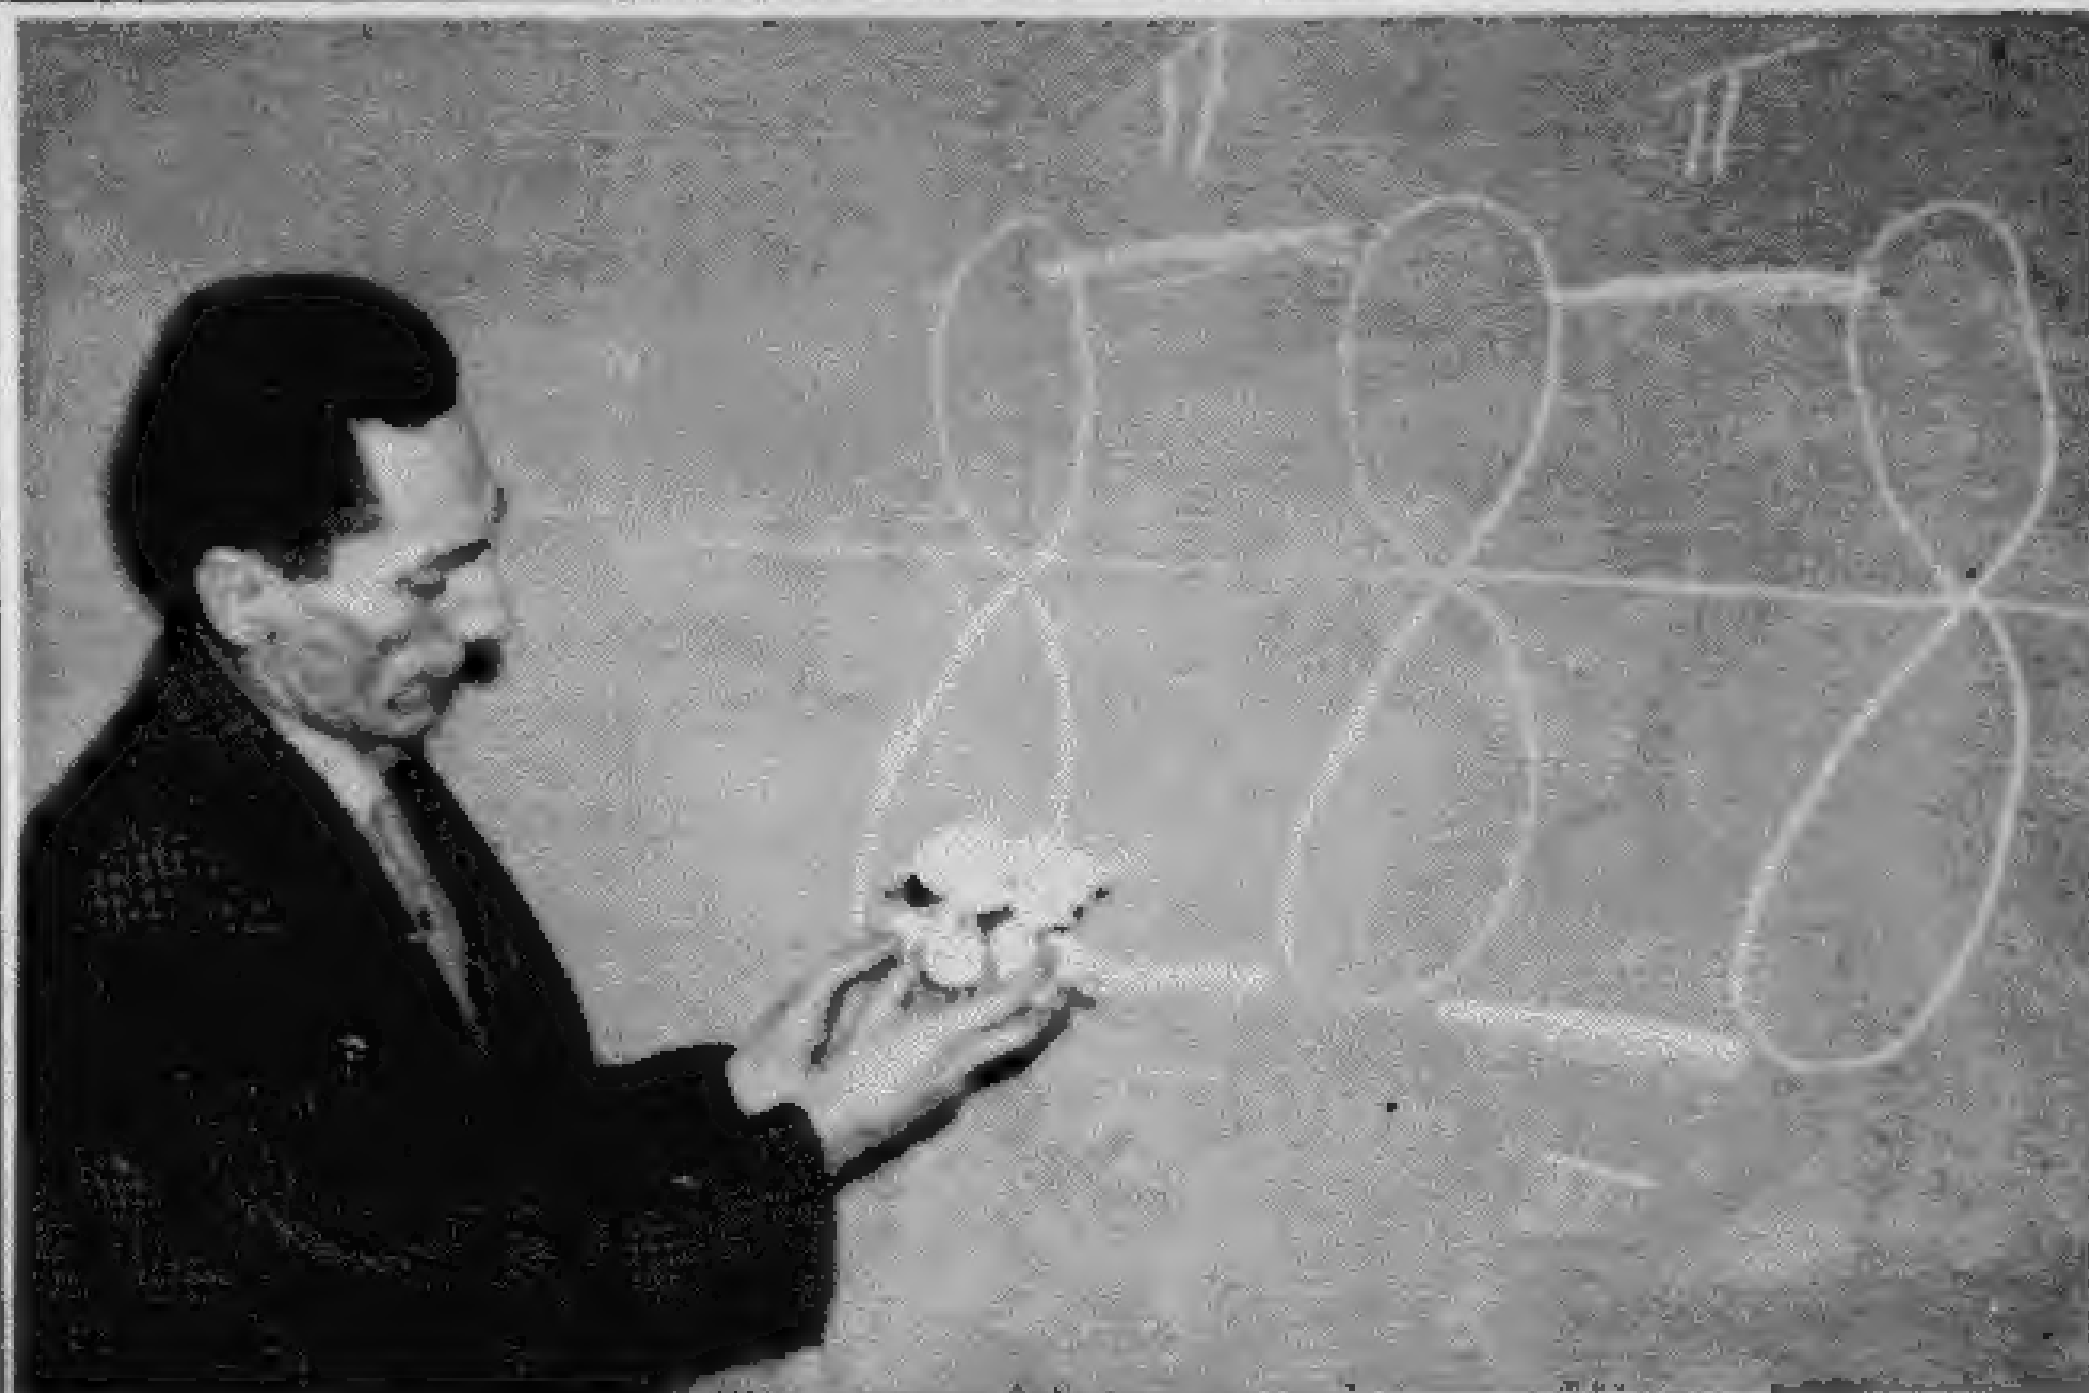

You seek peace and comfort and happiness. This is Christ's answer. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." (Mat. 12:28)"

Seminar for Science Teachers

The Seminar is being held in the St. Albert High School on Saturdays for the benefit of thirty-five Edmonton District high school science teachers. Two new science programs, the CERN Study in Grade 10 and a laboratory program in Grade 12, have been introduced into Alberta High Schools this year. Thus, science teachers are attending seminars in order to acquaint themselves with the new content and methods of the new programs.

These seminars are sponsored by the Edmonton District Science Council of the Alberta Teachers' Association. Mr. J. Miller, the President of the Science Council of Alberta and Mr. H. Marcellus of Bonnie Doon High School in Edmonton, have both been instrumental in the organization and presentation of the seminars.

We had a discussion with one of the students, Mr. T.S. Duffy, a teacher from Bon Accord High School, and we asked his opinion regarding this very interesting seminar. He said "To me the most important aspect of this seminar is to acquire emphasis on the inquiry approach which is finding out by experimenting how to approach and solve all problems in modern science teaching. In fact modern science is advancing so rapidly that no course or individual could hope to digest the 'factual' materials of all of modern science. Only specialists in narrow fields are able to do this. Consequently, I know that I must modify my methodology so that I may teach my students to become fairly good in solving problems of any kind by using the ways of science." The students are very grateful to the St. Albert Public School Board for their support by providing them with the necessary facilities. Material used during this seminar is paid for by the teachers. It is often said that teachers do not like to work without payment but in this case we have to admit that all of them coming from so far away are paying their travelling expenses themselves only for the sake of bettering the education methods in the science field at the High Schools for the students in Grade 11. The teachers are not receiving a credit for completing this seminar but they are convinced that this new method will increase the knowledge of the average grade eleven student in science immensely.

By Florence Lefebvre

On Wednesday evening, November 17th, I attended the Winnifred Stewart School for Retarded Children's tea which was held in their huge auditorium. The tea itself seemed an outstanding success as it was filled to capacity. While there, I was conducted through the new extension which will be opened in the near future. I hope you will be able to attend this function and see the tremendous accomplishment of the organization behind this school. It was my good fortune to meet Mrs. Stewart, and I felt it a distinct privilege. I was told that over three thousand people had visited the school that day, many from St. Albert. I also saw the articles on sale which the children had made. They really are unbelievably well made. I only regret that having come unprepared, my only purchase was a dozen lovely Christmas cards which I will enjoy addressing to friends. I must return for a centerpiece and more Christmas cards. With the joyous Christmas Season ahead, I can imagine the preparations that will take place.

WEDDING

HOULE - MATHIEU

Miss Lucille Houle, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Bruno Houle of St. Albert, and Mr. Guy Mathieu, son of Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Mathieu of Edmonton, were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony held on November 1st at the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church, with Rev. Father Lafrance officiating. The bride, dressed in a full length satin gown, wearing a shoulder-length veil held in place with a flowered headpiece and carrying red roses was given in marriage by her father. Miss Rachelle Huot was maid-of-honor, Miss Jeanne Houle and Miss Simone Hurtibise were bridesmaids. Miss Rita Houle was the flower girl. The bridesmaids were dressed in full length turquoise peau de soie gowns and carried white baby mums.

Mr. Richard Hebert, Mr. Leo Houle and Mr. Marcel Mathieu attended the groom. Gerard Houle carried the ring. Altar boys were Victor and Robert Ayothe. Ushers were Mr. Raymond Houle and Mr. Paul Mathieu.

Mrs. Doris Tellier was soloist for the occasion, with Mrs. Andrew Kennedy playing the organ.

For the occasion the mother of the bride chose a medium blue brocade dress, jacket and hat with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. The mother of the groom wore a cherry red wool dress and hat with black accessories. Her flowers were white feathered carnations.

The reception was held in the Club Morden following the wedding ceremony, after which the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Vancouver. As her going away outfit the bride chose a gold Italian knit suit with brown accessories. The couple will make their home in Edmonton.

A letter from the Prime Minister was received and read as follows:

Dear Mr. Cooley:

Would you please convey to all the boys of your Cub Pack my deep regrets that as things developed in St. Albert on October 19th, I was not able to meet them and shake hands. I gather that this is because the boys did as they were told and held their ground rather than surge forward with the crowd. This was most unfortunate, but I did want you to know how much I appreciate this type of discipline in the face of crowd reaction.

Perhaps the next time I am in the area.

News from the Fire Department

The Fire Department carried out the Home Inspection Program in the Mission Park area this year and other areas where requested by the Homeowner. Thus far the month of October turned out to be practically a fire free month as far as fire loss is concerned. The Department had only two calls, both being grass fires. This month the Department had two calls, both involving homes, one was a over-heated furnace motor and the other was clothes in a closet set on fire by a little boy playing with matches - in this particular fire, the babysitter, Nancy, still should be highly complimented for the way she handled the situation. First of all, getting the children out and having the clothes closet door shut and also the bedroom door closed thus holding the fire and smoke from spreading throughout the home and cutting down on the damage to a home. Thus far this year our fire loss is better than 50% less from last year and with the co-operation of all the homeowners, we hope to have even a better record. It only takes a few minutes to check for fire hazards and to eliminate the potential fires that can start. With cold weather here, do not forget to check your furnaces, and if you must store your lawn mower, outboard motor, etc. in your basement, make sure the gasoline is drained as gasoline of any quantity should not be stored in a home. For any information call 599-7021 and 599-7777 in case of Fire or need of a Pneolator.

NEW STAMP

The Honourable René Tremblay, Postmaster General, designated January 19, 1966 as being the release date for two new stamps featuring the floral emblem and armorial bearings of the Provinces Saskatchewan and Alberta. These large size 5¢ stamps will be the ninth and tenth in the floral emblem series which began in May, 1964. The prairie lily was chosen as Saskatchewan's floral emblem in 1941.

This stamp is printed in brown, green and orange. Alberta adopted the wild rose as its official emblem in 1930. Tones of red and green were used to print this stamp. The stamps were designed and printed by the Canadian Bank Note Company of Ottawa from data provided by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The offset method was used to print the floral emblems. The provincial coat of arms and the backgrounds were printed by the intaglio process. There will be 15 million Alberta stamps issued and 14½ million Saskatchewan stamps issued.

The K.C. Beacon

We would like to compliment the St. Albert Council 4742 of the Knights of Columbus with their very nicely designed monthly issue, the K.C. Beacon. It must be for the members of the Knights of Columbus of St. Albert a pleasant feeling that their activities are backed by such an interesting publication. We wish the executive of the Knights of Columbus, and especially the Grand Knight, Mr. Gilles Nason, success with this new approach to their members but also to St. Albert as a whole. We are very pleased that a local organization has the courage and the ability to promote their work in a way which so often other organizations in our Town lack. A progressive town needs people with progressive minds and ideas which is the only way to keep St. Albert a healthy, independent community.

The beautiful location of the new skating rink in Mission Park surrounded by a lovely tree decoration. Our compliments to the Park and Recreation Department for this wonderful job.
